

Copyright and Intellectual Property Policy

FreeSex.com respects the intellectual property of others, and we ask our users to do the same.

It is FreeSex.com's policy, in appropriate circumstances and at its discretion, to disable and/or terminate the account(s) of users and/or User Submissions (as defined in the Terms of Service) that may infringe or repeatedly infringe the copyrights or other intellectual property rights of FreeSex.com and/or others. Accordingly, following the steps outlined in the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), codified in relevant part at 17 U.S.C. §512, you may submit complaints regarding content on FreeSex.com, including User Submissions, using the steps below:

Notice for Claims of Intellectual Property Violations and Agent for Notice

If you believe that your work has been copied in a way that constitutes copyright infringement, or that your intellectual property rights have been otherwise violated, please provide FreeSex.com's Copyright Agent with the following information:

1. a physical or electronic signature of the owner or a person authorized to act on the behalf of the owner of the copyright or other intellectual property interest;
2. a description of the copyrighted work or other intellectual property that you claim has been infringed;
3. a description and/or links to where the material that you claim is infringing is located, with enough detail that we may find it;
4. your name, address, telephone number, and email address;
5. a statement by you that you have a good faith belief that the disputed use is not authorized by the copyright or intellectual property owner, its agent, or the law;
6. a statement by you, saying: "I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the information in this notification of infringement is accurate and that I am the owner or the agent authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the copyright or intellectual property at issue."

Despite our best efforts, it is impossible for us to monitor and verify the numerous User Submissions that are uploaded to FreeSex.com. Intellectual property and trademark law, specifically, often hinge on fact-specific details which are impossible for us to review. For these reasons, it is the intellectual property owner's responsibility to monitor their rights and to file a complaint if they believe these rights have been violated by a FreeSex.com user.
